

MADRID CENTRAL: EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT DOWNTOWN MADRID'S DRIVING RESTRICTIONS

What is Madrid Central?

Madrid Central is a designated low pollution zone introduced to try to combat high levels of pollution in the city. Madrid Town Council implemented new driving restrictions which limit access to Madrid Central.

DGT label types

- ☐ Zero emissions: Vehicles that run on battery, these are the least polluting vehicles.
- ☐ ECO: Plug-in hybrid vehicles, non-plug-in hybrids, compressed and liquified natural gas propelled or liquified petroleum gas vehicles.
- ☐ C: Passenger cars registered as of January 2006, and heavy vehicles and those with more than 8 seats registered after 2014.
- ☐ B: Gasoline light cars and lorries registered as of January 2000 and diesel vehicles registered as of January 2006. Vehicles with more than 8 seats and heavy vehicles registered as of 2005.
- ☐ No label: Gasoline cars registered before January 2000 and diesel cars registered before 2006, and heavy vehicles registered before 2014.

Car insurance in Spain

Choosing the right cover for your vehicle is about finding a balance between having your car properly protected and not overpaying for an insurance you don't need.

At Caser, we offer you a range of car insurances to fit your personal needs. You can choose between our Third Party, Extended Third Party, Comprehensive and CarxCar insurance.

MORE INFO

www.caserexpatinsurance.com